

Character Analysis

Let's go beyond the music and bring this character to life! This character development worksheet helps you think about the role in a different way from how they walk to who their parents are. To really connect with the character and do your best storytelling you need to understand the characters' objective, obstacles and tactics they use to get what they want. Have fun, be creative and be ready to fill in the gaps with information you might not have from the story.

Character's Name:

Show Name:

You have now stepped into your character's shoes! Fill out the rest of the worksheet as though YOU are the character.

Physical Traits

How old are you?

Where do you live?

What is your occupation (school is a job)?

How do you carry yourself? What does your posture look like?

How do you dress?

What Are Your Favorites And Why

---

Color:

Food:

Music:

Books:

Movies/Show:

Family Background & Friends

---

Who are your parents and what do they do? Tell me more...

Do you have any brothers, sisters or close relatives? Tell me more...

Who is your best friend? Tell me more...

Making Connections

---

How is your character DIFFERENT than you?

How is your character SIMILAR to you?

Objectives/Obstacles/Tactics

---

What do you want?

What or who is standing in your way?

How are you going to get what you want?

What did someone say or do to you right before to motivate you to sing this song?